

Aribell

Window Fill Foam Advantages

		Low-odor system and good flow without vinyl distortion
SC foams have been specialty formulated for window extrusions	SC ENE	R&D ongoing to validate acoustical benefits
Improves insulation value of the overall window NFRC101 approved and listed		One system achieves the above benefits No switching between different systems for different applications
Improves the bending process by minimizing scrap and reducing production time

What is Window Fill Foam?

- Two component, Semi-rigid Polyurethane Foam inside window profiles
- Low density foam has excellent yield while having excellent benefits
- Polyurethane Foam is NFRC101 listed

Why MCNS?

- MCNS (Mitsui Chemicals and SKC Joint Venture Company) is one of the leading PU companies in the world.
- MCNS has its own plant in Covington, GA and makes the foam systems in U.S.
- MCNS has its own QA lab in U.S. and responds to our customers' needs quickly.
- MCNS is the No.1 window fill foam supplier in North America and has significant R&D experience to adjust our technology for various needs and applications.
- MCNS offers local/regional technical and sales support throughout North America.

Contact Us

Aribell
The Leader in Door & Window Components